Fiorenzo Nada 2017 Barbera d'Alba

Treiso, Piedmont

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2020 - 2027

The 2017 Barbera d'Alba is a bold, luscious wine that captures all of the richness of the year in spades. Black cherry, plum jam, licorice, spice, menthol and leather are all kicked up a few notches in an unctuous, flamboyant wine that will drink well with minimal cellaring. The 2017 is 100% Rombone fruit that spent 12 months in neutral French oak. This is such a pretty wine.

Fiorenzo Nada 2017 Dolcetto d'Alba

Treiso, Piedmont

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2019 - 2025

Nada's 2017 Dolcetto d'Alba is pliant, supple and rich, with no hard edges. This is a decidedly racy, forward style, with tons of red cherry and raspberry fruit pushed forward. Then again, Dolcetto often does well in warm vintages.

Fiorenzo Nada 2017 Langhe Nebbiolo

Treiso, Piedmont

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2020 - 2027

Nada's 2017 Langhe Nebbiolo is a blend of young-vine fruit and the lower slopes of the three Barbaresco vineyards in the Nada range. Sweet tobacco, dried flowers and red berry fruit all develop in the glass. Far from an easygoing wine, the 2017 has quite a bit of tannic clout that really begs for at least a bit of bottle age. Then again, most of this fruit is from Rombone, where the wines are naturally potent.
